Four sets — Breathe, Rainbow Flow, Painted Nations and Four Seasons — 71 dancers, each moving to their own music.

It starts quietly, with sculpted portraits listening to a melody, then breaks into rainbow movement: dancers from traditions around the world, and a cycle through spring, summer, autumn and winter. Each page that follows carries two works, with their stories and a recommendation for how to print them.

DANCING NATIONS

Set I

BREATHE

16 WORKS · NO. 01-16

NO. 01 · SET I · BREATHE

Curled Intimate

"Folded into the song."

A quiet opening piece. She curls into herself inside a field of sage and sand swirls, with gold notes and treble clefs rising around her like a melody she is keeping close. Everything is built from the same sculpted texture, so the figure and the music become one surface.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 02 · SET I · BREATHE

Joy — Curly Afro

"Joy, all the way up."

Eyes closed, smiling wide, her curly afro formed from tight coils of sage, sand and honey gold that spill straight into the swirling music around her. It is the most open face in the set: pure, unguarded happiness held in relief.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 03 · SET I · BREATHE

Soft and Calm

"Breathe in, soft and calm."

A face surfacing through level bands of sky blue and dove grey, eyes closed, as if listening underwater. Handwritten lyrics drift across the lower bands: breathe in, soft and calm, hold, drifting, just listen. A meditation you can hang on a wall.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 04 · SET I · BREATHE

Quiet, I Still Hear Your Song

"Quiet, I still hear your song."

The calm after. A side profile formed from sculpted cream waves, with sage green music staves looping around her and dripping down the canvas. The notes keep playing even after the room goes silent.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 05 · SET I · BREATHE

Rhythm — Feel the Beat

"Feel the beat."

Pure movement. Her torso and hips are thick swirls of magenta, arms trailing blue and yellow splatter like struck cymbals, with musical staves and handwritten lyrics spinning around her. The body is the rhythm.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Premium glossy canvas or metallic fine art paper, so the rainbow ridges catch the light like wet paint.

NO. 06 · SET I · BREATHE

Sky Hush

"Floating, weightless."

She rises with her arms reaching out, almost weightless, through thick horizontal bands of soft sky blue and grey. Music notes lift off the ridges around her. Euphoria in its quietest key.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 07 · SET I · BREATHE

Joy — Honey Gold

“Laughter, in gold.”

Head thrown back, freckles, laughing with her whole face. Her hair is pure honey gold and warm cream swirls that become treble clefs and notes, sculpted in high relief. Joy in its warmest tone.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 08 · SET I · BREATHE

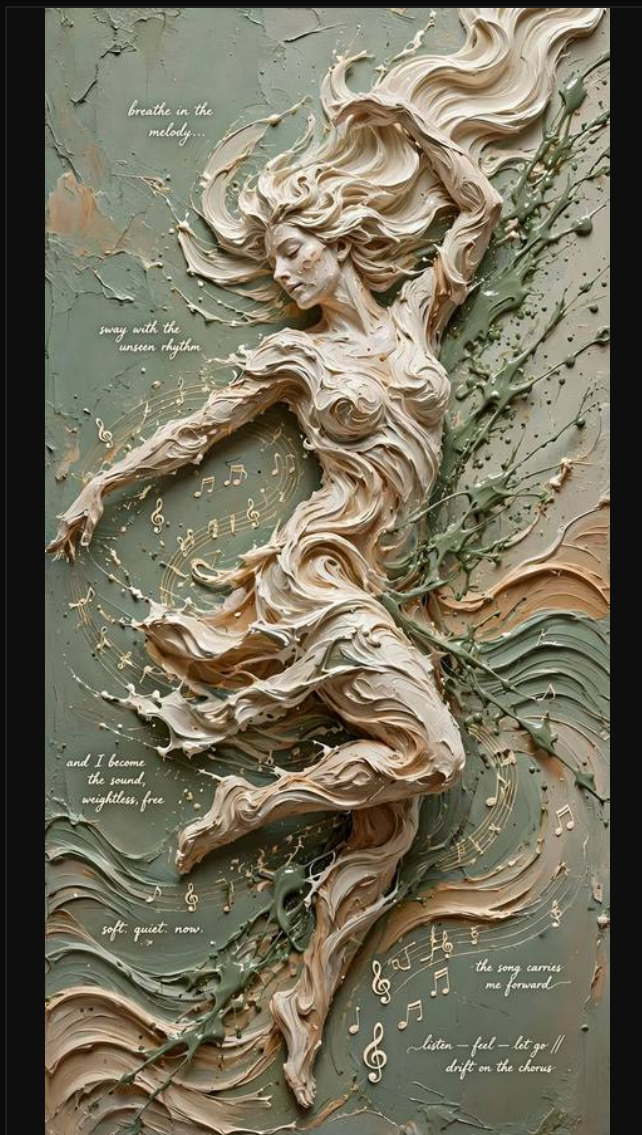

Level

“Dissolving into the staves.”

A profile facing left, dissolving into level musical staves and soundwave ridges in cool greys and blues. The horizontal lines read as both water and music, and she slowly becomes part of the score.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 09 · SET I · BREATHE

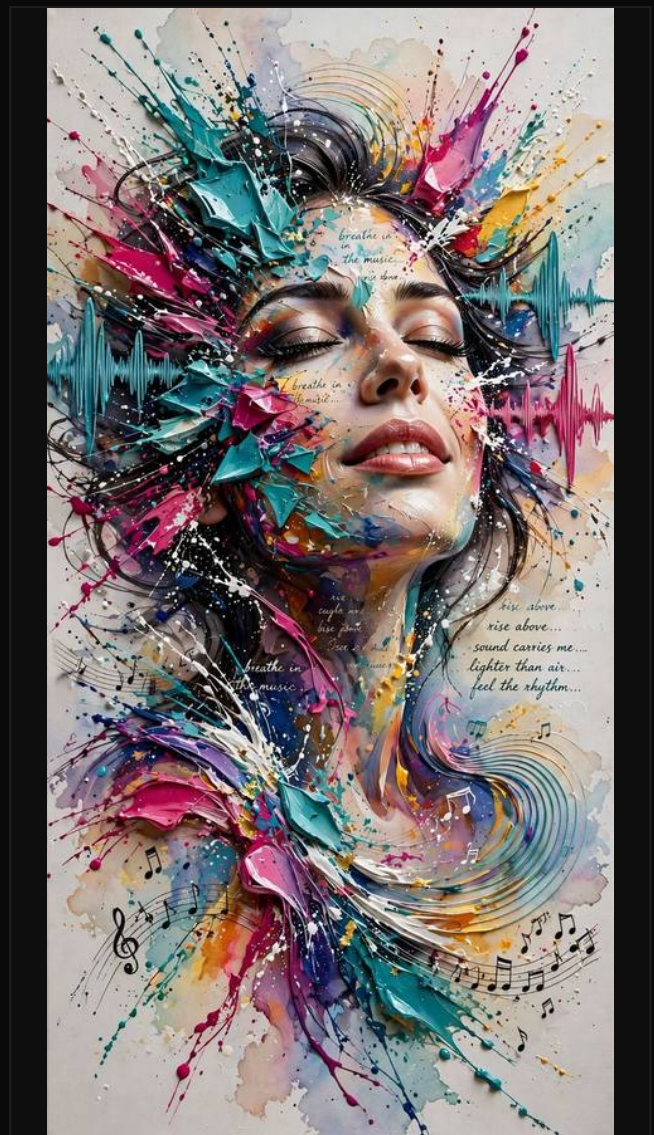

Sway With the Unseen Rhythm

"Sway with the unseen rhythm."

Full movement in cream and sand. Her entire body is built from swirled relief, suspended mid-dance against a sage ground, with handwritten lyrics tucked into the corners. She is the wave rather than someone riding it.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 10 · SET I · BREATHE

Euphoria — Breathe In the Music

"Breathe in the music."

Eyes closed, ecstatic: the most explosive of the portraits. Glossy teal and magenta shards crack across her face like high notes, with white splatter and visible sound waves. Lyrics about breathing in the music drift along the edge.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Premium glossy canvas or metallic fine art paper, so the rainbow ridges catch the light like wet paint.

NO. 11 · SET I · BREATHE

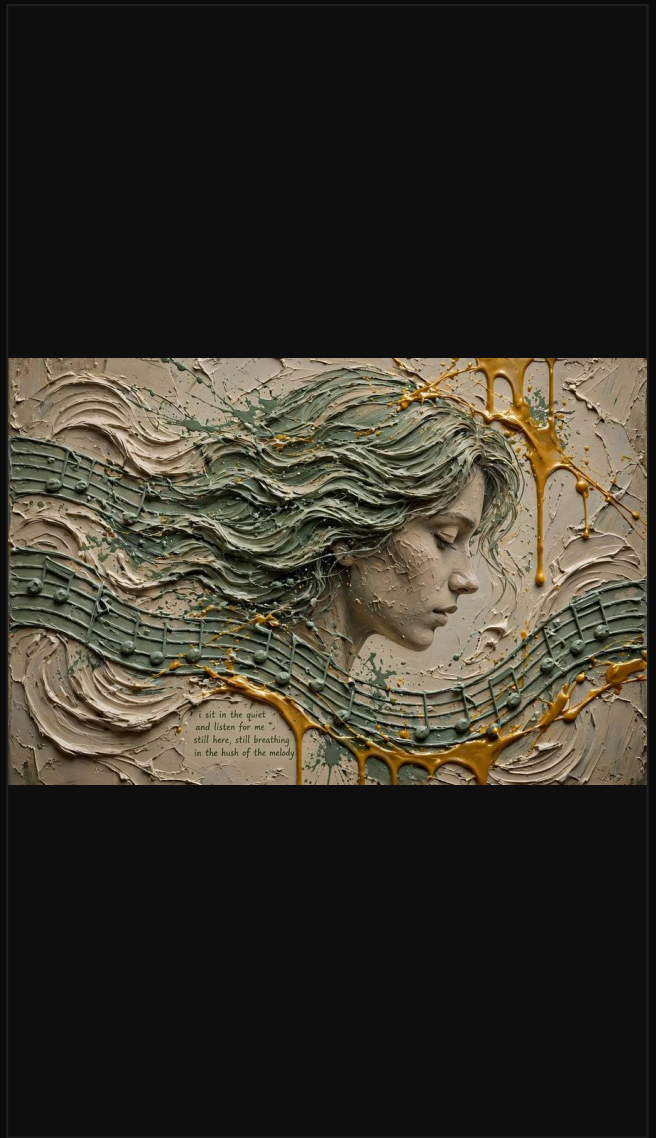

Melancholy — Whisper in the Dark

“Whisper in the dark.”

Introspective and slow. A profile emerging from a dark gallery wall in deep teal, gold and slate, with long vertical drips and faint staves. The gold catches the light only where the thought is strongest.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Satin canvas or velvet matte paper, with matte glass if framed, so the dark ground stays deep and glare-free.

NO. 12 · SET I · BREATHE

Hush of the Melody

“Hush of the melody.”

The deep cut. A side profile whose hair flows into thick sage music staves, honey-gold splatter bursting behind her and dripping down the wide canvas. Her eyes are closed: she is sitting inside the song.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 13 · SET I · BREATHE

Serene

“Carried by the current.”

Long hair that is the wind itself: dove grey, sky blue and cream ribbons flowing back into curling waves and treble clefs. A serene profile, eyes closed, completely at rest inside the movement.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 14 · SET I · BREATHE

Curled Intimate — Sky

“Holding on to herself.”

Short, softly curled hair and a low-relief body in sky blue and cream, curled inward and hugging her knees. Musical swirls wrap around her like a blanket. Intimate, self-contained, safe.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 15 · SET I · BREATHE

Breathe in the Melody

"Breathe in the melody."

Heavy sage shards explode outward from a calm cream face, eyes closed. The relief breaks apart around her like sound leaving a speaker, while she stays perfectly still at the centre.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.

NO. 16 · SET I · BREATHE

The Embrace

"The embrace."

Seen from behind, arms wrapped around herself, long hair flowing down, head tucked. The body is built from sage and grey relief, with gold splatter and notes bursting outward. A private moment, held.

PRINTING RECOMMENDATION

Velvet matte fine art paper or satin canvas, which keeps the soft relief calm and free of glare.
